

Port Cellars Guide

Wine lovers! If you are heading to Porto, a Port tasting should definitely be on your itinerary! There are many Port houses and cellars to choose from, so this guide should help when making your decisions. Most tasting will take about an hour and a half, some longer.

Suggestion: if you are new to Port wines, choose a tasting with 3 wines (white, ruby, and a tawny). Get your bearings on how Port wine is made and what makes each one unique. A good foundation will help when you want to taste more complex wines.
